

14. Kishori Shakti Yojana (KSY)

Theme	Education, Health
Department	Social Welfare department
Target group(s)	Adolescent girls between 11 and 18 years old
Description of the scheme	Kishori Shakti Yojana (KSY) seeks to empower adolescent girls to enable them to take charge of their lives. It is a holistic initiative for the development of adolescent girls. It seeks to provide them with an opportunity to realize their full potential. The scheme includes a vocational training course.
Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To improve the nutritional, health and development status of adolescent girls2. To promote awareness of health, hygiene, nutrition and family care3. To link girls to opportunities for learning life skills, going back to school, gain a better understanding of their social environment and to take initiatives to become productive members of the society
Eligibility	Girls in the age group of 11-18 years.
Whom to contact for the actual status of the scheme	District Programme Officer (DPO) ICDS/Child Development Project Officer (CDPO).